

Job title	Junior Developer Renewable Energy
Reports to	Solar Development Manager

Job purpose

- Scout new opportunities, negotiate and manage relationships with renewable energy developers and stakeholders with focus on Sub-Sahara Africa;
- Support bid preparation and optimization, coordinating the different departments deliverables and tasks;
- Risk management assessment for the different opportunities;
- Support the development phase of the projects coordinating the permits and authorizations process.

Duties and responsibilities

- Assist with developing, implementing and improving the company portfolio of renewable power plants;
- Assist with the analysis and preparation of the tender across Sub-Sahara Africa;
- Assist in project managing the execution of projects as set out in the scope of work and in the different project phases;
- Assist in the project development budget drafting;
- Assist with the writing of procedures and updating procedures;
- Review, update and store documents related to solar photovoltaic plants and wind farms.

Qualifications

- Engineering degree, Environmental Management degree, Economics degree relevant master in the field or background is essential.
- Previous work in an EPC company, Energy developer is preferred, but not essential.
- At least 1+ years' experience within the energy industry, renewable energy is highly advantageous (REIPPP).

General

We are looking for an enthusiastic individual who wants to enter the renewable energy space, working in a young, dynamic and exciting environment.

- Brilliant communication, verbal and written is required.
- Be able to manage time effectively.
- Have excellent problem-solving skills and a proactive approach towards tasks and deadline.
- Be analytical and solution driven in their approach to tasks
Have very high attention to detail.
- Have a professional approach.

