

Scholarship Program

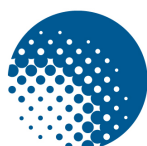

Education for Sustainable Energy Development

Application deadline:
April 11, 2022

Maximum amount awarded:
10,000 USD per year
(for a maximum of 2 years)

Available to full-time master's students from developing countries pursuing studies in the fields of zero-carbon energy, smart grids, electric transportation, energy storage, advanced electricity technologies, public policy, economics, law or political science.

More information:
globalelectricity.org/scholarship/

Global Sustainable Electricity Partnership